

Sending Our Condolences

York Simcoe lost one of their most dedicated volunteers last month with the passing of Len Attridge at the age of 72. Len was born and raised in Richmond Hill and spent much of his time at the local bowling centre. It was at Allencourt Lanes, one of the most modern centres of its time, where Len's bowling career started to flourish. Len worked part time fixing the machines and also assisted with the Bantam bowlers in the youth league. After a fire at Allencourt Lanes, Len continued his involvement with the YBC at ABC Bowl. He joined the Master Bowlers' Association in 1977 and continued with the organization until 1986 when it closed down. From there Len moved to Richmond Hill Pro Bowl and continued as a supervisor and coach until health problems forced him to retire. In 2007 Len was inducted into the York Simcoe 5 Pin Bowling Hall of Fame as a volunteer for his 38-year commitment to the Youth Bowling Council.
